

MAY 3 1968

Thank you very much, Tracy.

About my column: it appears regularly on Saturdays in the W. Post, and weekly (various days) in some other papers-- now including the Madison (Wis.) Capital Times, and the Minneapolis Tribune. Howard Simons, at the Post, is more eager to sell it to other local papers than might appear from his unaggressive salesmanship (a hint to you about asking your local editor). The column has nothing to do with the regular Post-Times newswire and syndicates, a point which has caused some grief. Doubleday is publishing a collection of the first hundred-and-odd of them, I hope before 1969.

Sincerely,

P.S. I'll send you some recent ones under separate cover.
